

Learn a New Language With Mango Languages

The library now subscribes to a new database: Mango Languages. This web-based language tutor contains thousands of online lessons in nine different foreign languages. To use Mango from home you must have a West Linn library card. Go to www.lincc.org, click the Online Databases, then click the link for Members of West Linn Library. For more information, call the information desk at 503-656-7853, x6.
